

SUBMISSION CALL FOR BEIRUT ART CENTER'S EMERGING ARTISTS' EXHIBITION

As part of its initiative to promote innovative local talent, Beirut Art Center, in partnership with Fidus Wealth Management, SGBL group, organizes an annual emerging artists' exhibition.

We are happy to announce the launch of the submission call for this year's exhibition, Exposure 2010.

We invite you to submit a proposal before April 24.

Please note that there is no specific theme and that all mediums are accepted.

Artists may propose a project that is not yet complete and that they wish to present for this show or a completed work that has not yet been shown.

The Executive Board of BAC, along with a committee invited for this occasion, will select the artists who will participate in the exhibition based on their proposals.

The selection of the participants will be announced by mid-May.

Exposure 2010 is scheduled to take place in mid-September.

A catalogue featuring the work of all participants will be produced and launched at the end of the exhibition.

If you wish to participate, please send us a request for an application form by email to info@beirutartcenter.org.

For more details on participation, kindly refer to the terms and conditions below.

Terms and Conditions for Participation

- The artist must be Lebanese or a non-Lebanese resident of Lebanon
- The artist must propose a new work or a work never shown before in Lebanon.
- The artist must submit a complete application form that includes:
 - A presentation of the work/project that he/she will be submitting for the emerging artists exhibition at BAC (A description and visual material to help understand the work)
 - A biography (which should include educational background and a list of exhibitions)
 - An artist statement
 - A portfolio of selected works